MIGHTY MARQUARS - The Marquars cousins, Donald and Buck, pose (with shoes) alongside trophies won in their three-week battle to highest honors attainable in Golden Gloves competition this year. Donald was voted Outstanding Novice fighter of the tournament and Buck runner-up at Jackson, Tenn., Saturday night.

Marquars win in mid-South

The Battlin' Barefoots, cousins Donald and Buck Marquars, fought their way to the top of their divisions last weekend in the Mid-South Golden Gloves boxing tournament at Jackson, Tenn., each scoring two knockouts out of three fights.

Donald brought home the highly prized trophy for Outstanding Novice fighter of the tournament and Buck ran a close second for the honor.

The Marquars outclassed and outpunched the best fighters the Golden Gloves had to offer in novice divisions from Mississippi, Arkansas and Tennessee during the past three weeks, starting their campaign in Hattiesburg, advancing to Jackson, Miss., and winding up tops in their divisions in Jackson, Tenn., which is as far as the rules allow them this year. Next year they will advance to the open division and can compete for national championships.

In his first fight Thursday night, Donald, 112-pound flyweight belted out David White of Forrest City, Ark., in 1:40 of the second round, using a two-fisted attack.

In the semi-finals Friday, he relied on boxing skill to get a unanimous decision over Geary Vondra of Blytheville, Ark., using a cruel left and a stinging right hand to the body.

In the finals Saturday night, Loyce Ardemagni, of North Little Rock, Ark., started bleeding midway in the first round from a barrage of hard lefts to the head and, with eight seconds left, went down from a good right but was saved by the bell. He was unable to answer the bell for the second round and Donald was awarded a TKO and the novice flyweight championship.

Cousin Henry (Buck) Marquar had little trouble in his first fight as he helped Jack Hornsby of Jackson, Tenn., dis-

Former Bay postmaster passes away

Fred L. Herlihy, 61, who served as Bay St. Louis postmaster from 1952 until 1957 when he retired because of poor health, died Saturday morning at Hancock General Hospital. The funeral was Sunday afternoon from Riemann's Funeral Home with religious services at Our Lady of the Gulf Catholic Church with burial in Garden of Memories. Born at Kila, he was educated at St. Stanislaus College and was a former president of its Sidelines Club. He was in the government service for 37 years, the first three with the Veterans Administration before transferring for the postal service in 1925 at Alexandria, La. He came to Bay St. Louis in 1927.

Mr. Herlihy was active in numerous church and civic organizations, being a past grand knight of the Knights of Columbus, treasurer of the Holy Name

Boost county as gateway to coast, chamber told

More publicity about Hancock County generally and especially as the "gateway to Mississippi's Gulf Coast" was advocated by several members of Hancock County Chamber of Commerce at the membership meeting held Monday night in connection with the regular meeting of the organization's board of directors.

Members present also approved the chamber of commerce continuing sponsorship of newcomer meetings and similar activities frequently handled elsewhere by other organizations. In connection with the coffee held for newcomers Feb. 6 Mrs. J. R. Shadon reported that she had heard several favorable comments on the way it had been handled.

A budget for 1964 prepared by Vice President Joseph Marochino, which anticipated 140 members, was endorsed subject to membership in the organization reaching that number.

As a result of the interest shown by those attending Monday night Powell Glass, Jr., chamber president, said similar meetings will be held bi-monthly with the next one scheduled for April 20. Purpose of the meetings is to provide the general membership a better opportunity to participate in decision-making by the board of directors.

County fixes road values

The MTO (road situation was again discussed at length Monday with Walter Mussell, chief of the real estate division, Corps of Engineers, Mobile, who repeated he was without power to make a decision and could only discuss the matter and forward supervisors' request for reimbursement for MTO area roads to authorities in Washington.

In compliance with a request made at last Monday's meeting, Mussell was given a map showing county roads in the area and the figure of $1,250,000 was fixed as the cost to the county and state to build the roads and as the estimated cost of building and improving roads in other sections of the county where former MTO residents have relocated.

Mussell asked for 30 days to submit the proposal and get an answer, noting that the Corps was only acting as an agent for NASA. Board president R. G. Hubbard asked that whoever was responsible for making the decision meet with the board and

U.S. : no, jury finds $54,489

A jury in U. S. District Court at Biloxi last week returned a judgment of $127,146 for Hancock County for its 16th acreage being acquired by the National Space and Aeronautics Administration for its Mississippi Test Operations.

The government had offered $18,000 for 320 acres it was condemning in the MTO fee area and the jury awarded $72,000 and $657 for 2.29 acres in another tract. The jury returned a verdict of $54,489 for the 317.71 acres in easement for which the government had told the county school board it would not give a penny.

While the federal government announced it would appeal the decisions, the money must be placed in escrow and the difference of $54,000 on the fee tract will draw interest at six per cent from Nov. 1, 1962, and the balance at six per cent from June 11, 1963, dates on which the government took possession, pending the court hearing.

Walter J. Phillips, attorney for the county school board who represented the county in the case, said he is still checking the law as to what amount must be earmarked for replacement of the 322.29 acres being lost as 16th Section land.

Two public meetings to get the facts on the proposed $3 million utility bond issue to the public have been called by the Citizens Progress Committee which is spearheading support for the sewerage, water and natural gas system improvements.

Representatives of Owen and White, Baton Rouge consulting engineers for the city of Bay St. Louis on the project, have agreed to be here to address a meeting called for 2:30 p.m. Sunday at Valena C. Jones School and another session set at 7:30 p.m. Monday at Bay High School auditorium.

In addition to the engineers, city officials and local physicians will be on hand to explain the program, its financing and the need for it. At present it is contemplated that the election on the bond issue will take place Saturday, March 21, providing the city's bond attorneys, Charles and Trauernicht of St. Louis, Mo., can complete their phase of the preparation in time.

Arrangements for the two mass meetings were made by the Citizens Progress Committee at a meeting last Thursday night at Coast Electric Power Assn. after Joseph Marchino, chairman, reported there seemed to be considerable mis-information circulating about the utility improvements.

Jaycees hear program for utility bonds

Mayor John A. Scaffide and Joe Benson, engineer, met last Wednesday night with the Jaycees to explain the proposed $3 million sewerage and utility bond issue and organize plans for the Jaycees and Jaycettes to contact every voter in behalf of the issue.

Marion Wolfe, Jr., Jaycee president, said the organization listed this as the most needed and largest single project for development and growth of the area and would concentrate all its efforts on its passage.

Jaycees are preparing for the state board meeting in Laurel this weekend when Bay St. Louis will attempt to secure the 1964-state-wide outstanding youth farmer event. A joint orientation program was conducted Monday night by Bay and Gulfport units for the Long Beach Jaycees when Charles Carter, Tom Logue and Lee Choppin were speakers.

Blue ribbon certificates have been awarded to Andre Arceaux and Choppin for signing five new members.

MTO work force on rise

The contractor personnel count at Mississippi Test Operations continued its upward climb this week with a total of 421 listed for an over-all work force at the NASA installation of 694, highest figure so far in 1964. Last week contractor workers totaled 371 and by summer the total is expected to reach about 3,000.

Meanwhile the Corps of Engineers at Mobile announced the award of a $1,210,656.14 contract to Hyde Construction Construction Co., Inc., of Hancock, Mich., joint venture, to construction of various roads, railroads and utilities at the site.

Work is to be completed by end of November on the

which includes a main railroad line from the classification yard to the fuel storage areas; a spur railroad line to the warehouse; road extensions to the administrative area and to the industrial water pump station; a temporary road from Rt. 43 across the bascule bridge and back for use during relocation of the highway; approach slabs, traffic control signals and traffic gates at the bascule bridge; three parking areas in the Saturn V test complex; power supply cable extensions; communication ducts to the data handling center, and more water supply and sanitary sewer facilities in the support area.

Pole crash cuts power in So. Bay

Electric power was interrupted for about an hour in the section south of Central Avenue at 8:30 a.m. Monday when Carlisle Gibson, 22-year-old Gulfport Negro, traveling north on South Beach Boulevard, lost control of a 1957 Cadillac and sheared off a Mississippi Power Co. utility pole, a parking meter and Merchants Insurance Agency sign next to Merchants Bank causing property damage estimated at $1,000 by chief of police Lathan Garriga.

Gipson was booked, released on bond and will face charges tonight in mayor's court of reckless driving, causing damage and having no driver's license or tag.

A. H. Gregory, manager of the local Mississippi Power Co. branch, said the accident set up a reaction in the south circuit feeder set-up on Necaise Avenue and repairs were made in minimum time.

Teen Times

Know we're late, but last week's column had to be written before Carnival and we must have about what we consider the best local parade we've seen to date. All floats were lovely and showed many, many hours of hard work had gone into their completion. S. J. A. Ingram's first place Missouri float was made doubly attractive by clever checked gingham dresses and sunbonnets worn by the girls and matching shirts for boys. Gown worn by Queen Carol Sanford and her maids were just out of this world. King Stan Wilkerson and his dukes were resplendent in bright satin costumes. Now is as good a time as ever to apologize to Krewes Captain David Compretta who we erroneously called Bobby last week. More Mardi Gras news, pretty dark haired Judy Tallac who was invited to lead the big parade in Covington, La. walked off with top honors in horsemanship. Mayor John Seafide crowned Prima Thomas as 1964 queen of the Heart of Our Lady of the Gulf Parish Hall Friday night. Mayor, James Hammon and Dr. J. B. Levens assisted in counting votes. Pat Bayliss was runner-up with Joe Ann Riggs a close third. The girls did a wonderful job amassing almost $800. for this worth while cause. Prima's total was $245; Pat's, $214. and Joanne collected $207. Joanne's mother, Irma (Mrs. A.J.) Cuevas has asked us to thank all of her friends who so generously contributed to make her daughter's campaign a success.

Georgia Necaise was also crowned a Queen of Hearts the same night at First Baptist Church. She and Riley Walker reigned over the Sweetheart Banquet. Fifty-four guests enjoyed chicken, sweet potatoes, green beans, pineapple and heart's delight cake at this affair.

Back to last Tuesday's parade. Bay High graduates, Mary Lee Garcia and Betty Smith were pearls in PRJC's string which made such a hit with bystanders. Many wondered why the group including the head dropped out before reaching Bay High on the return trip. It was understood that the Pearl River delegation was to be on the bus at 2:45 ready to return to school, so for all who missed the show, maybe they'll return next year. Incidentally Jimmy Loop plays in the band.

Mary Lou Herlihy received a novel Valentine from Gene Ferry—an adorable stuffed animal with spectacular eye-lashes and a box of chewing gum!

Oren M. Seal
Seal is sent to Callender Field

Airman Third Class Oren M. Seal of Lakeshore is being reassigned to Alvin Callender Field, La., following his graduation from the technical training course for U. S. Air Force fire protection specialists at Greenville AFB.

Seal was trained to prevent and fight structural, aircraft, and material fires and to perform preventive maintenance on fire fighting equipment and vehicles.

The airman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Oren L. Seal of Lakeshore, is a graduate of Kiln High School.

A belated welcome to Teen Times goes to Linda Hayes who was 13 on Feb. 1. Randy Ferguson celebrated his 12th birthday at a party at Tower Lanes on Saturday, Feb. 15. Enjoying cake, soft drinks and candy were his brothers and sisters, Phillip, Ricky, Valerie and Virginia; Patsy Calhoun, Terri Maloney, Ellen Carter, Jackie Toomey, Gene Estapa, Johnny Bufkin, Timmy Walte, Don Caldwell, Ernie Davis, David Adams, Wayne Fillingame and Terry and Clancy Shorb.

Catholic Young Adults bowled at Tower Lanes Sunday afternoon. Their next meeting will be at 2 p.m. this Sunday, at the Parish Hall. After a brief business session the group will be taken on a tour of MTO at Gainesville.

Bay High seniors are taking full advantage of senior privileges including the use of the front door! Linda Munch was among those spending Mardi Gras in the Crescent City.

Tiger staff members were frantically dashing around searching for one picture needed before sending annual copy to the printer last Friday afternoon.

Some returning home from college last weekend included Hiram Baxter and Ray Kidd from PRJC; Gail Stewart from Ole Miss and Nita Kay Erwin

Ann Lee wins Crocker award in style show

Ann Lee, senior at Hancock North Central School, was selected as winner of the Betty Crocker pin at the school's fashion show earlier this month.

Home economic students modeled dresses they had made and winners included Mary Lee, 11th grade, who displayed a three piece green wool suit featuring a reversible jacket; Christine Moran, dressy dress; Gwen Favre, school wear.

Gay Necaise took first place in skirt and blouse division; Jane Knowlton's bright red sheath was tops in that class and Marjorie Smith led in jumper judging with her brown cordette creation. Dianne Shiu, eighth grade model, won in aprons.

Other outstanding dresses shown were Lena Mae Garriga's two-piece brocade ensemble, Wanda Pippin's eye-catching three-piece linen c r a s h in bright green and yellow, Myra Peterson's lovely yellow satin bride's maid dress and Gail Pouncey's school dress.

Paula Reynolds, HNC graduate, now a senior at the University of Mississippi practice teaching at North Central, gave a brief talk on how home economics had helped her in college.

and her houseguests from USM. Victor Neill, SSC boarder, has his eyes on a certain young lady who's initials are JC.

Some Southern students coming home last weekend included J. D. Rutherford, Carol Western, Mary Lou Herlihy, J. P. Compretta and Paula Cridler and her house guest, Sherry Owensby of Linden, Ala.

Enjoying a recent trip to New Orleans were Larry Johnson, Larry Harrison and Tommy Humphreys.

Several residents of Grosvenor Place have asked that we warn teen-age drivers who seem to think this street a freeway, that the town marshal has been called and if this practice is continued you're apt to end up paying a healthy fine. Many very small children live in the area.

Our suggestion

Of the questions asked about the proposed utility improvements for Bay St. Louis probably the one heard most frequently is "how much will my water bill be?" Of necessity the answers to this are not exact since it depends on how much water will be used.

Engineers for the project estimate that the average bill for water should be about $3.20 a month. To this 50 per cent must be added as a sewer charge making a total of $4.80 a month. This figure is based on the amount of water used by the average family in the United States and we bet will prove pretty close to correct in Bay St. Louis.

The engineers, however, in an effort to be sure all relevant information was publicized have stressed the point that without meters water consumption in Bay St. Louis has been running quite a bit above the usual rate. They have variously given the figure as three and four times the national average. This is misleading. It is comparing water consumption here on a hot summer day, when our population is swelled by summer visitors, to the year round average of a resort area. Nevertheless, it seems pretty certain we do use more water than we would if we paid according to the amount used. It's only natural and much of the excess is the result of waste.

Possibly the easiest way for people here to get some idea of how much their water will cost them is to check with friends in Waveland. We don't think the people there are any cleaner than those in Bay St. Louis, need to water their grass any more or have some mass trait that would account for a major difference in water consumption. The average water cost in Waveland last July was $3.08 per meter. In December it was $2.75.

We believe a pretty good idea of how much water will cost a particular family in Bay St. Louis under the proposed bond issue can be obtained by comparing with equivalent sized families in Waveland and adding one-fourth. The additional one-fourth is because the proposed water rates for Bay St. Louis are almost that much higher than those paid in Waveland.

If someone knows a better way of predicting these costs, please write us a letter, or better still, speak up at the public meetings on this question being held Sunday at Valena C. Jones School and on Monday at Bay High School.

Repeal it

Railroads are now bumping into an antiquated Mississippi law dating from 1914. This law in essence requires that firemen be used on freight train locomotives. When it was enacted in 1914 this requirement had a safety purpose, but requirements which were reasonable when applied to the steam engines of past years are not necessarily so when applied to modern diesels.

Presumably the railroads would have sought repeal of this statute long before now, but in recent years it is only now that it has effected them. For years their contract with the operating unions has resulted in the same thing, but this "featherbedding" requirement has been found unnecessary repeatedly by various commissions set up to study the question. The latest was the arbitration board established by Congress and as a result of its findings railroads are now going to gradually withdraw firemen from the crews of freight trains.

An Arizona law limiting the number of cars on passenger and freight trains as a safety measure was held invalid in 1945 by the U. S. Supreme Court in Southern Pacific Co. vs. Arizona because of its effect on interstate commerce and it is likely that this Mississippi law would meet a similar fate if tested in the courts.

However, that procedure is lengthy and costly and it seems to us that the statutes involved, sections 7759-61 of the Mississippi Code, should be repealed. No other action is consistent with a "climate" friendly to industry, something Mississippi certainly wants.

New coast women's golf group elects

Mrs. Powell Glass, Jr., of Bay St. Louis was elected president of the newly formed Gulf Coast Women's Golf Club. At a meeting at the Bay St. Louis Hotel Thursday night the constitution was adopted.

Officers elected were Mrs. Louise Williams of Biloxi, vice president and treasurer; Mrs. Robert Wright, Bay St. Louis, secretary; and Mrs. Owen Hines, Biloxi, president.

Mrs. William Wilson of Ocean Springs has been serving as an advisory chairman and Mrs. Robert Perry of Bay St. Louis as honorary secretary. The group was organized through efforts of Mrs. Williams.

Letters to The Editor

Editor, Sea Coast Echo

I have read your articles and recent editorials regarding the L and N and its petition before the Interstate Commerce Commission to discontinue the so-called commuter train, and just wanted to take this opportunity of thanking you for the factual and fair way in which you have reported this matter and for the editorial comment.

It is indeed nice to know that you have understood our position in the matter.

Will look forward to thanking you personally the first time I am in Bay St. Louis.

Yours very truly,

Other officers elected were Rev. August Holden, vice chairman; Rev. Bob Suckock, secretary; Rev. L. C. Cuevas, publicity chairman; and Rev. John Dillard and Rev. Percy Hahn, board members.

Main St. church goals met Sunday

Main Street Methodist Church set a new record attendance of 156 at its Sunday School last Sunday, received more than $4,300 in pledges and cash for its new parsonage and had about 140 persons take part in a fellowship dinner at noon. The Sunday School count topped the old one of 152 last Oct. 13.

With $2,011 in cash contributions toward the parsonage this brings the total over the last two and a half years to $11,000 of which $4,500 has come in during the current conference year beginning last June 1. This makes a total of $17,000 in cash or pledges toward the $30,000 program. Annually $3,000 is set aside toward this so $20,000 will be available by this June.

ment program. Joseph R. Scharff was named chairman of the committee to handle the Bay High meeting, assisted by Earl Ramond and Powell Glass, Jr. J. S. Price is in charge of the session at Valena C. Jones.

Dr. A. K. Martinolich, Jr., CPC vice chairman, was added to the publicity committee which plans to bring need for all aspects of the program to the attention of the voters before the election. A mass meeting on the beach from the night before the election is under consideration.

While the committee was in session the 500-member American Legion post at its meeting "went on record" in support of the bond issue. Legionnaires and the Jaycees will be asked to conduct a door-to-door campaign to get out the vote in favor of the issue.

Additional organizations which have gone on record in support of the $3 million issue in recent weeks are the Knights of Columbus, Sidelines Club of St. Stanislaus, Rotary Club and Bay-Waveland Garden Club. Chairman Marchione reported.

At both Sunday's and Monday's meetings persons attending will be asked to volunteer their services to help passage of the bond election. Tables will be set up in the auditoriums where they can sign for the committee on which they want to serve.

Some repairs to the Upper and Lower Calumet Roads also are being made by General Electric Co. as support contractor for MASA. Use of these old county roads by the heavy construction equipment has caused considerable damage to the surfacing and crater shells were used as a temporary repair measure.

Bid opening set on $5 mil. job

Bids have been called for opening March 10 for construction of a large high pressure water and heating facility at Mississippi Test Operations which is estimated to cost in the neighborhood of $5 million.

The facility will provide industrial water under high pressure to the rocket test stands to cool the flame deflectors during firing operations and will serve as a part of the heating and air conditioning system for the Saturn V complex.

The contract will call for the construction of a combined pumping and heating plant with a floor area of 40,000 square feet; an industrial water system including a reservoir, pump intake structures, government-furnished pumps and diesel pumps and diesel pumping units; and piping; a heating system including three high-temperature water generators of 15 million BTU per hour capacity; an oil storage facility; and all necessary utilities. It will also include the installation of four government-furnished 15,000 KW diesel engine generators for stand-by use.

The Army District Engineer at Mobile recently awarded a $3,711,226 contract to Nordberg Manufacturing Co. of Milwaukee, Wisc., for designing and manufacturing the pumping units for installation in the pumping station. Their combined capacity will be 434,000 gallons per minute at 495 foot head.

[illegible]

We were of the opinion that following Carnival nothing much took place in the month of February. . . but just how wrong can anyone get? We realized that this is Heart Month but the fact that it is also Catholic Press Month had gone unnoticed. We also slipped up on Scout week, Feb. 7-13; Race Relations Sunday (this is bound to be a new one), on Feb. 9; Crime Prevention week also got by under our noses—it was from Feb. 9-15, and of course we had Lincoln's birthday the 12th and will all dutifully eat cherry pie honoring the Father of Our Country, George Washington the 22nd. Now some, in fact perhaps all of our readers were aware of the above mentioned observances, but just how many know that this is also Sick Room Needs month????? Guess we'll send happy Sick Room Needs Month greetings to Louise Lynch, Charlie Thomas and Bob Lauderdale and Rene deMontuzin!

Probably no one is very much interested in just what week or month this is, but it beats writing about the weather, which at the moment is just plain lousy. . . an uncouth but accurate description. So much for that. . . on with news of the day:

More about Carnival

We'll begin by passing on a message from Belle Penrose and Betty Hill who represented Hancock General's Pink Ladies in last week's parade. The two, never dreaming there would be such a large turnout, were overly generous with their throws in the early part of the procession and were very much embarrassed when they ran completely out long before the end of their route.

Hancock General patients who have been enjoying beautiful camellias in their rooms daily may thank Mrs. Raymond Talbot who contributed three enormous baskets of these blossoms last week.

Bill Ewin of Hammond, La., was a visitor to the Bay Saturday, Bill, who now operates newspapers in Amite and Kentwood, La., was an Echo employee back in the late 50s.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Wallis, usually faithful weekenders who have been weatherbound in the Crescent City much of the winter, arrived at their Beach Blvd. home for the weekend. Zelda and Ken Waltman also returned after an absence of several weeks.

Belated happy birthday greetings are on the way to Mrs. Ed Harris, former Wavelander now living in Meridian. Dessie and R. L. Grigsby dropped in on Mr. and Mrs. Harris last weekend.

Margaret De Haan came within one pin of tying Bobbie Armstrong's record bowling score of 143 in Miss Fitts competition last Thursday night.

We're sorry no one got a picture of what we considered two of Carnival's best maskers. . . the gay black cats who incidentally happened to be Virginia Wagner and Evelyn Wagner.

Sartorial elegance

We just realized that we're always describing something chic worn by various local females, but after noting the sartorial elegance of numerous men about town, we've decided it's about time we gave an occasional mention to some of their attire. For instance in this week's polling, Sam Benigno wins hands down in the blazer department, Roy Saux sports the most decorous suit; George Stevenson's 'work shoes' are the most, 'Doc' Ramsey's hat the snappiest and Ola Moran's bolo tie wins in that class! (Cont. next week.)

So many people admire the attractive couple wearing black and white cowboy outfits accompanied by the adorable little clown in a tiny real automobile we'll have to reveal the fact that the trio was Zora, Harold and young Jerome Carver plying the streets on Mardi Gras.

Weather and health permitting Betty (Mrs. Edward P.) Phillips plans to leave her home for the first time since August on Saturday. She's to attend Mrs. Elizabeth Weber's 90th birthday party in the Crescent City on that day. Visiting Betty and Mr. Ed, Sunday were the Misses Ursula, Agnes, Loyola and Olga Blanke of New Orleans.

The ailing public

More get well wishes—John Garza, who has been in Hancock General for a little over a week is on the mend, as are Pat and Charlie Butler, both recent flu victims. Won't even try to list current cold sufferers, but at the risk of being accused of practicing medicine without a license, we'll pass on Ann Hutchinson's secret, which by the way has at least temporarily alleviated our personal germ problem. . . vitamins in double dose. . . so help us, after two solid months of being plagued with constant colds, we've felt like a million since trying Ann's suggestion. Better add a warning to dieters, find we feel like eating twice as much, but anything is better than a cold.

Hear that Jo Gex is 'parlez-ing la Francals' like mad in preparation for one of the dreamiest vacations to date. Jo and Mrs. Guy Billups, sr. embark on their European jaunt in late April. . . wouldn't it make good copy for this column if they just happen to bump into 'Ease' and Jean Charbonnet in the course of their travels?

There are still some who become disgustingly dewey eyed when recalling last month's snow. . . Mellie Van Calsem is not among this group having fractured her left arm in three places in a fall on ice in her driveway.

'Mac' (H.E.) McIntire, well known conductor of the commuter was Waveland visitor last

MRS. R. H. POTTER, IV

Couple wed in Jackson

Announcement is made this week by Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Rogers of Hattiesburg, formerly of Bay St. Louis, of the marriage of their daughter, Cheryl Lu, to Russell Hayward Potter, IV, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Potter of Jackson and the late Mr. Potter. The ceremony took place Jan. 25 in Jackson.

The bride, whose maternal grandparents were the late City Commissioner and Mrs. W. L. Bourgeois, was educated in the Hattiesburg schools. The groom is a sophomore at the University of Southern Mississippi.

annually, John Auderer always loses at least 30 pounds sans all alcoholic beverages, Grace Bordages is doing double penance, no nicotine and nothing stronger than coffee, in fact we could fill a page or two with what 'who has given up'. . . so this dept. too will be cont'd.

Sports stuff

All's still relatively quiet on the fishing front although something should start popping soon. . . at least Al Kingston is of that opinion. . . his tackle shop is bursting with brand new angler's necessities. . . as for hunting, we're afraid to mention anything. . . so alert are local wardens. . . we just might tell tales out of school!

Rev. Bertrand Eckert sent the boss a batch of interesting stamps on a postcard in which he dropped the information that he is in the hospital in Delhi, India. Hope an old back injury hasn't flared up to give him trouble again. . . but we fear

DIAL THE WEATHER YOU WANT

Warm or cool or in between. With modern electric home heating, you simply dial the temperature you want and let clean, silent electricity do the rest. With electric resistance heating, you can have a thermostat in every room. Pinpoint heat control is maintained at just the temperature you desire. With the miracle weather machine called the heat pump, you set the dial once at the temperature that suits you best and forget it. The heat pump both heats and cools—automatically. And you can be assured that the temperature will remain within a degree and a half of thermostat setting—providing springtime freshness inside whether it's sunshine or snowy outside. There are many other advantages of electric heating: Its cleanliness; its quietness; its ease of maintenance. And the cost of operating an electric heating system is competitive with systems of comparable quality. Mississippi Power Company has a staff of heating experts who would be happy to answer any questions about flameless electric heating and explain how the installation of permanent home heating may qualify you for big savings under the Company's Wiring Plan. Get full details soon.

In Mississippi... after bowling, beer is a natural

After you've bowled a game or two, or when you're winding up the evening at the neighborhood bowling center, it's good to relax with friends and compare scores. What better way to add to the sport and the sociableness than with a refreshing glass of beer? However you take your fun—skating, skating, or at your ease in the game room—beer always makes a welcome addition to the party.

Your familiar glass of beer is also a pleasurable reminder that we live in a land of personal freedom—and that our right to enjoy beer and ale, if we so desire, is just one, but an important one, of those personal freedoms.

Mississippi... beer goes with fun, with relaxation

Jones boys, girls win circuit crown

Valena C. Jones boys and girls cagers capped top honors in the South Mississippi Athletic Conference Tournament Saturday at Poplarville and will represent South Mississippi in the south zone tournament scheduled for March 6 at Brookhaven.

Selected to the all-tournament girls' team were Bartha Dorsey, Linda Young, Annie Haynes and Marilyn Price. Boys making all-tournament were Sullivan Bell, J. W. Fields, Cleveland Williams and Harold Price. They will participate in an all-star game slated for 7:30 p.m. Tuesday between the south squad, composed of Jones, Pass Christian and Wiggins, and a north squad from Parvis, Poplarville and Lucedale. All-conference teams will be named following the games.

Coach Willie Bradley credited teamwork with Saturday's victory and said if the players continue working together he wouldn't be surprised if they went on to state championships. Bradley said Monday captain Joe Tate may be in shape to put in the lineup.

In the finals, Jones beat

Locker High of Wiggins 75-69, staving off a last minute threat. The Jones boys got off to a 20-14 first quarter lead, tied the second 15-15, lead in the third 24-20 but trailed in the final period 16-20. Co-captain Sullivan Bell gave an outstanding exhibition of shooting and dribbling in both finals and semi-finals. High scorers were Bell 27, Harold Price 26 and J. W. Fields 10 who was also outstanding on defense, controlling offensive and defensive backboards.

In semi-final play the Jones lads dumped Randolph High 80-57 with Sullivan Bell racking up 35 points followed by Robert Whavers 16, Harold Price and Cleveland Williams with 14 each and J. W. Fields 10.

The Jones girls took their championship trophy after solving the slow-down tactics of Poplarville eking out a 25-24 victory in the opening of final play

BHS 2nd at G'port, face Sumrall next

Although losing to Gulfport 63-37 Saturday night in the finals of the Sub-District Eight A-AA tournament at Gulfport, Bay High's cagers will compete in the over-all District Eight tournament this week at Hattiesburg, both winners and runners-up advancing.

The Tigers were scheduled to meet Sumrall, winner of the sub-district tourney in Sumrall High's gym, Wednesday night in first round play at Hattiesburg.

Bay High's girls were eliminated by Harrison Central, winners at Gulfport, Thursday 56-34 and St. Joseph's Academy bowed out to Pass Christian, runners-up 45-39. Bay High knocked out St. Stanislaus in the boys' opening game Thursday night 60-38; the Rockchaws holding their own in the first half but weakening in the second while the Tigers scored almost at will.

Bay High took the first frame 9-7, Stanislaus the second 18-17, and Bay High the third and fourth 12-7 and 22-6. Leading scorers for Bay High were Larry Harrison with 25 and Ross Maurigi 12. For Stanislaus, Curtis Matherne 16. They were the only players to hit in double figures.

Friday night the Tigers jumped off to an eight-point lead against Pass Christian and were never headed although the Pirates got within six points in the last quarter. Larry Harrison was again high scorer for the Tigers posting 23 points followed by Ross Maurigi with 18. Wayne Moran with 25 was the only Pirate to hit in double figures. The Tigers led the first, second and fourth quarters 15-7, 15-9 and 19-18 while the Pirates took the third 15-9.

In the finals Saturday night Bay High was only one point behind at halftime but fell apart in the third frame and at the end of the third were trailing Gulfport 44-25. The Commodores took the first 13-10, the Tigers the second 11-9, and Gulfport the third and fourth 22-4 and 19-12. Harrison and Maurigi were the only Tigers to hit in double figures with 20 and 12 respectively.

Two tall forwards from Pass Christian Carolyn Scarborough, and Suzie Pavolini, proved a little too much for St. Joseph's Gold Jays although the Jays managed to stay within striking distance most of the way. Suzie Rhodes and Jo Mary Ar-tigues scored 17 and 14 points respectively.

Harrison Central's top seeded boxer lead Bay High's girls in every quarter.
